

Read on Wisconsin
2013-2014
Middle School Books

September:

Wonder by R.J. Palacio. Alfred A. Knopf, 2012

October:

Dark Lord: The Early Years by Jamie Thomson. Walker, 2012

Friends With Boys by Faith Erin Hicks . First Second, 2012

November:

The Mighty Mars Rovers: The Incredible Adventures of Spirit and Opportunity by Elizabeth Rusch. Houghton Mifflin, 2012

Moonbird: A Year on the Wind with the Great Survivor B95 by Phillip Hoose. Farrar Straus Giroux, 2012

December:

After Eli by Rebecca Rupp . Candlewick Press, 2012

January:

Marching to the Mountaintop: How Poverty, Labor Fights, and Civil Rights Set the Stage for Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Final Hours by Ann Bausum. National Geographic, 2012

Fire in the Streets by Kekla Magoon . Aladdin / Simon & Schuster, 2012

February:

The Revolution of Evelyn Serrano by Sonia Manzano. Scholastic Press, 2012

March:

Unwind by Neal Shusterman . Simon and Schuster, 2007

April:

Outcasts United: The Story of a Refugee Soccer Team That Changed a Town by Warren St. John.
Delacorte Press, 2012

Temple Grandin: How the Girl Who Loved Cows Embraced Autism and Changed the World by Sy Montgomery. Houghton Mifflin, 2012

May:

See You at Harry's by Jo Knowles. Candlewick Press, 2012

Summer:

Chomp by Carl Hiaasen. Alfred A. Knopf, 2005

Diamond Willow by Helen Frost. Frances Foster / Farrar Straus Giroux, 2008

Kimchi & Calamari by Rose Kent. HarperCollins, 2007