

A state-wide literacy program that promotes high-quality books monthly for children and teens in five different age-level groups

Partners and Sponsors

- Cooperative Children's Book Center (CCBC)
- Media, Educational Resources and Information Technology Division (MERIT)
- Wisconsin DPI's Division for Libraries and Technology
- TeachingBooks.net.
- Youth Services Section, WLA, sponsor

Books

Yearly Book Lists provide

- cultural diversity and authenticity
- balance of male and female protagonists
- variety of genres and formats
- Wisconsin authors and/or illustrators
- each age level group
- range of different reading abilities

Literacy Advisory Committee

- Teachers
- School Librarians
- Youth Services Librarians
- Early Childhood Specialists
- Library and Education School Students

Resources

Twitter

- ReadOnWI @ReadOnWi · Dec 16
 Learn about Melissa Stewart's inspiration for Under the Snow, Read On Wisconsin's December Primary title: celebratescience.blogspot.com/2009/09/behind...
 Expand Reply Delete Favorite More
- ReadOnWI @ReadOnWi · Dec 13
 Teen Librarians: Eat and be merry with our December title, Raven Boys, and this recipe for Gansey's favorite pizza: ow.ly/rJROV
Expand Reply Delete Favorite More
- ReadOnWI @ReadOnWi · Dec 16
 Find Text Complexity Rubric Results and more for our December title, The One and Only Ivan from Teaching Books teachingbooks.net/qigepu
 Expand Reply Delete Favorite More

Read on Wisconsin
Website

2013-2014 Discussion Questions

Teacher resources for Lemonade in Winter from the author's website.

Pinned from emilyjenkins.com

Booktrailer of Fire in the Streets from Whitehorse Middle School students

Pinned from readon.education.wisc.edu

Read On Wisconsin Around the Read On Wisconsin

Pinterest

Activities

Twitter Chats at #rowchat

- Book reviews
- Book discussions
- Book-themed teen parties

- Facebook groups
- Goodreads bookshelves
- Fan fiction writing groups

Book Trailers

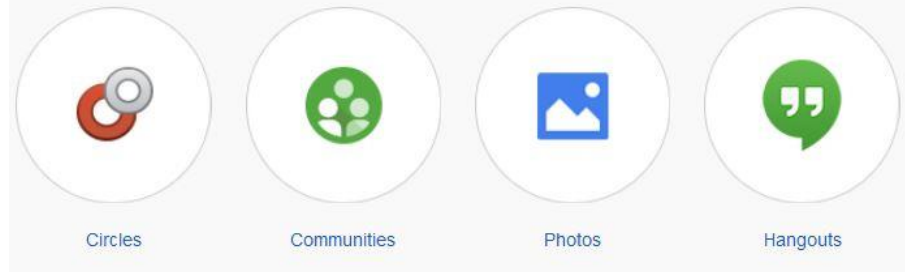

Future

Help us find the best ways to help you engage readers

Take our survey

<http://www.tfaforms.com/309657>

Get to know Google+

- State-wide online book discussions
- Video chats with authors
- Ready made story hour
- Virtual professional communities
- Book trailer training